GENERAL INFORMATION

The Summer School was established at the College in May, 1915, by authority of the Board of Trustees, and held its first session in 1916. A six to twelve weeks session has been held every summer since that date.

The 1938 summer session will be eleven weeks in length, beginning June 13 and ending August 24.

The first term will consist of six weeks, beginning June 13 and ending July 20 during which classes will be conducted five days per week, except on two Saturdays, when regular classes will be held.

The second term will consist of five weeks, beginning July 21 and ending August 24, during which classes will be conducted six days per week.

Each term is a separate unit, on which full credit may be secured for work completed.

In accordance with the aim of the Summer School to serve public education in the State to the fullest possible extent, a special effort is made to meet the needs of those wishing to obtain, renew, or extend certificates; of high school teachers and others wishing credit toward degrees; of public school teachers wishing to study progressive methods of teaching any grade of school work; of students enrolled in the regular session at this and other colleges who wish to make up work; of those desiring special work in home economics, music, art, speech, physical education, social service, and other special fields; of those desiring to teach in junior and senior high schools or to secure additional training in that field; of those wishing a thorough course in public school music or to prepare for the State examination in piano or public school music; of those wishing general physical education courses preparatory to teaching that subject or to coaching athletics; of those interested in repertory classes in violin, piano and organ; of those desiring high school credit.

MEN STUDENTS IN SUMMER SCHOOL

For a number of summers Alabama College, primarily for the convenience of local men students, has opened its summer sessions to men. Beginning with the 1938 Summer Session, the policy of permitting men students to enroll for credit courses will be discontinued. The new policy of course does not apply to conferences, meetings, and short courses or other work for which no college credit is given.

CURRICULA

Courses are offered in art, biology, chemistry and physics, education, English, history, home economics, mathematics, modern languages, music, physical education, psychology, sociology, social work, and speech.

By attending the entire eleven weeks, a student may complete a year's work in such fundamental courses as biology, chemistry, English, history, mathematics, and modern languages.

In the other departments many of the courses are so organized that a full year's work may be completed in either six or eleven weeks.

PROGRESSIVE EDUCATION DEMONSTRATION SCHOOL AND THE SUMMER PROGRAM FOR TEACHERS

June 13-July 20

The Progressive Education Association will again sponsor during the first six weeks of the 1938 Alabama College Summer School a Demonstration School and Summer Program. In addition to the program for elementary teachers, which has been conducted for the past six summers at the College, the Demonstration High School and program for high school teachers, begun three summers ago, will be repeated.

Dates for Demonstration School and Summer Program

The summer program of Progressive Education will coincide with the first term of Summer School, June 13 to July 20, 1938. The Demonstration Schools will be open for observation June 20 to July 20.

Reception Given Progressive Education Work for Past Six Summers

The reception given the progressive education work at the College during past summers has amply demonstrated the worth of this program. Approximately six hundred teachers and supervisors have attended the full six-weeks program. Approximately four thousand teachers, supervisors, superintendents, and other school workers have observed the work and have taken part in the conferences for periods ranging from a few days to three weeks.

Nature of Work to be Offered this Summer

The work this summer is designed for both elementary and high school teachers. The program will consist of:

1. An Elementary School demonstrating the practical applications of progressive education principles and theory and including activity programs, large units of work, pupil initiative, individual needs, creative thinking, and character development. The Elementary Demonstration School will be the center for all phases of progressive education work for elementary teachers.
2. A High School demonstrating the practical applications of progressive education principles and theory. The features characterizing the work of the Elementary School will be shown also in the High School, which will be the center for all phases of the progressive education work for high school teachers.
3. College credit courses in progressive education.
4. Two Non-Credit Short Courses in Progressive Education and the Curriculum, June 20-July 1 and July 5-15, are designed for college graduates and those who are familiar with this philosophy and practice. Those unfamiliar with the philosophy should enroll for the six weeks course, as experience has demonstrated that such students are unable to acquire in less than six weeks of concentration the understandings necessary for interpretation of this work. Those desiring to attend one of the short courses should communicate with the Director of the Summer School in advance.

5. Joint Curriculum and Progressive Education Conference, June 30-July 1.

College Credit Work in Progressive Education

1. An Integrated Education Course -----Credit, 6 semester hours. Students desiring to devote their entire time to education work may enroll in this course, directed by Dr. Alice V. Keliher. Demonstration school teachers and education teachers will assist. Each student in the course will choose two or three major interests for concentrated work. One short general meeting each day, and seminars, study groups, conferences, laboratory work, and observation in the demonstration school, as needed, will constitute the day's work. Credit for this course may be distributed in accordance with the amount of time devoted to the several interests.

The several interests which may be pursued in this course are:

- A. Principles of elementary education.
 - B. Principles of secondary education.
 - C. Directed observation in the lower elementary grades, in the upper elementary grades, or in the high school grades.
 - D. Art as it functions in a progressive school.
 - E. Music as it functions in a progressive school.
 - F. Physical education as it functions in a progressive school.
 - G. Methods of teaching the several subjects in a progressive elementary school.
 - H. Methods of teaching English, social science, and science in junior and senior high school.
 - I. Principles of Education.
 - J. Curriculum laboratory.
2. Other Courses in Progressive Education.
Students who desire to devote only a part of their time to the Progressive Education Program may register for progressive education courses listed under Education. Credit, 2 or 3 semester hours.

The Progressive Education Summer Program should appeal to all teachers, administrators, and students of education interested in the new education. It should appeal to the following classes of students:

- A. Those who attend summer school for the progressive edu-

- cation alone. A full term's work carrying six semester hours of credit may be taken.
- B. Those who desire to take one or two courses in progressive education and one or two courses in other fields.
 - C. Those not interested in college credit but who wish to spend two weeks in observation and study of the new education.
 - D. Those teachers who are interested in modifying their teaching to conform to the philosophy underlying the Alabama Curriculum Revision Program. The work in the Demonstration Schools will demonstrate the type of work contemplated in the Core Curriculum.

Cost of Six Weeks' Courses

Those attending for six weeks and taking six semester hours of credit will pay approximately $50.50 for room, board, laundry, tuition, library fee, recreation fee, medical fee, and other fixed charges. The cost is the same for all students rooming in the dormitories and taking six semester hours of work.

Pupils Eligible for Demonstration Schools

A limited number of pupils outside of the town of Montevallo can be accepted in the Demonstration Elementary and High Schools. No fees will be charged for elementary or junior high school pupils. Senior high pupils who do not attend this school regularly will pay a registration fee of $3.00 each and a tuition fee of $4.00 for each one-half unit of work. Senior high school girls may secure room and board in the College dormitories. Other Demonstration School pupils must make other rooming arrangements. Children cannot be accommodated in the College dormitories.

Pupils not living in Montevallo who desire to attend the Demonstration Schools should apply to the Director of the Summer School as early as possible.

WORK ON STATE CURRICULUM REVISION PROGRAM

The College is cooperating with the State Department of Education in its elementary and high school curriculum revision program. This summer three curriculum courses will be offered:

1. Orientation in Curriculum Making.
2. Techniques of Curriculum Making.
3. Laboratory in Curriculum Making.

The Curriculum Laboratory will be conducted in close cooperation with the Progressive Education Program. The development of large units of work to be taught in the Demonstration School will be part of the work of the Curriculum Laboratory.

The Curriculum Laboratory will develop guidance materials to be used by the teachers of the State in the curriculum revision program which is to extend over a period of several years.

NON-CREDIT SHORT COURSES

Two non-credit short courses in Progressive Education and the Curriculum are designed for college graduates and those who are familiar with Progressive Education and Curriculum philosophy. Those desiring to attend one of these short courses should communicate with the Director of the Summer School in advance. Art and Music Workshops will be open to those interested in these fields.

Progressive Education and Curriculum Courses. The work during these two-weeks courses, June 20-July 1 and July 5-15, will consist of observation in the Demonstration Schools, visiting regularly organized Progressive Education Courses and the Curriculum Laboratory, and work in a special class organized for those attending the Short Course. These two short courses are not designed for those unfamiliar with this philosophy.

Art Workshop. Students may do intensive work for short periods in any of the fields of art included in the regular courses. No previous training is required, but a student must have had business or teaching experience, or some acquaintance with art. Credit may be received for this work if the student attends six weeks.

Music Workshop. Students may do intensive work for short periods in any of the fields of music included in the regular courses. Credit may be received for this work if the student attends six weeks.

MUSIC

With the extension of the Progressive Education Demonstration School to the high school, the study of music is now possible on all levels. Many music teachers who are not interested in credit and full-time courses will profit in observing the work.

The courses indicated here are offered in the first term of the Summer School. Those interested in music study during the second term should consult the Director of the School of Music before July 1.

Instrumental and vocal ensemble work will be given increased attention in the 1938 Summer School. Credit courses for full-time students are offered, but participation in the work is possible for shorter periods.

The summer music work aims to serve several widely divergent fields of music. Organ, piano, violin, and voice as well as School Music Methods, Wind and String Pedagogy, and Music Education are offered.

APPLIED MUSICRepertory Classes

The courses in Applied Music are divided into two types, one serving established musicians who wish to add to their repertory or to re-study and re-interpret familiar works. To permit full consideration of more extended compositions, two one-hour private lessons a week are advised in this group of courses.

The second group of Applied Music courses is for students approaching the study of the literature of the instrument or voice for the first time and working for the formation of adequate technique. These courses also serve those who do not wish exhaustive study of an instrument, and may be taken for less than full credit.

The work in the above mentioned courses will be offered by:

Harrison D. LeBaron	Organ
Mieczislaw Ziolkowski	Piano
Willis Aleshire	Violin
Katherine Farrah	Voice

FINE ARTS WORKSHOP

Work in Applied Music and in Appreciation may be undertaken for less than the full period but without credit.

APPRECIATION

The phonograph library which has been recently enlarged offers opportunity for the study of many fields. The modern trends of musical composition may be studied with the actual music. The object of these courses is to broaden the musicianship and to enlarge the musical horizon.

School Music

The courses in School Music will cover the methods and materials for the elementary and high schools. Opportunity will be offered to students in these courses for observation of music work in the Demonstration School.

The instrumental work in band and orchestra will find a practical laboratory in the High School Band and Summer School Orchestra. Courses in instrumental and choral conducting will be offered. The Summer School Glee Club will offer demonstration opportunities for choral conducting. The work will be offered by the following:

Katherine Farrah—Elementary and High School Methods
 Willis Aleshire—Instrumental Pedagogy and Conducting
 H. D. LeBaron—Choral Conducting

Music Education at the Piano

This course, designed for teachers of piano, will consider primarily the needs of the pupil and the building of his musicianship. It will stress a thorough understanding of the aims of musical education. A study will be made of the underlying psychology of musical listening and performance, including their possible aims and a philosophy of musicianship. The application of these principles to the mental processes of the student is studied together with the development of proper attitudes. All of this is done in connection with definite musical compositions in order that the course may be as helpful in its concrete applications as possible. This course will be offered by Mr. LeBaron.

MUSIC FEES

The total expense of a course, including practice and the credit hour fee, is as follows:

Theoretical courses carry the regular college charge of two dollars per credit hour.

The Applied Music carries the credit hour charge plus two dollars for each lesson.

The minimum number of lessons for one hour credit is six; for two hours credit, twelve.

DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

The theory courses offered are from beginning harmony through composition. As far as possible this work will be conducted to meet the immediate needs of the students. Work in courses not outlined may be pursued, if possible to arrange the instruction. As far as possible prospective students should indicate in advance the work desired.
